A HISTORIC EVENT EXPERIENCE

TIMELESS ELEGANCE IN THE FINANCIAL DISTRICT

48 Wall Street provides a unique event space in Lower Manhattan for those seeking a setting defined by legacy and prestige. Located in the heart of the Financial District, our venue occupies three grand floors of the former Bank of New York & Trust Company Building. This historic NYC venue stands on a site rich with narrative; the current structure's cornerstone was laid on January 12, 1928, the 171st birthday of the bank's founder, Alexander Hamilton.

Today, the venue stands as a preserved masterpiece of American architecture. With its soaring ceilings, detailed marble work, and the original Grand Mezzanine, it remains one of the best NYC event spaces for distinctive gatherings. We have seamlessly integrated modern production capabilities into this historic downtown venue, ensuring that whether you are hosting a corporate summit or a social gala, you experience the perfect blend of 1920s grandeur and contemporary convenience.

Bank of New York

THE MOST ICONIC VENUE ON WALL STREET

This space has retained much of its original 1920's architectural detail; from the 30-foot ceilings to its beautiful Palladian windows. The Grand Mezzanine can host and accommodate a variety of events, which include seated dinners for 350 guests or a cocktail reception for 500 guests. The space can also be divided to your liking to create a more intimate setting for smaller events and meetings.

THE GRAND MEZZANINE

The centerpiece of the venue is the breathtaking Grand Mezzanine Banking Hall, one of New York City's most distinguished event spaces. Soaring 30-foot ceilings, magnificent Palladian windows, ornate architectural detailing, and a sweeping marble staircase create a dramatic first impression that immediately elevates every guest experience.

Whether hosting an elegant awards gala, executive summit, luxury wedding, shareholder meeting, holiday celebration, or global product launch, the Banking Hall provides an inspiring setting where timeless architecture meets flawless execution.

Designed with flexibility in mind, the space accommodates elegant seated dinners for up to 375 guests, sophisticated cocktail receptions for 500 guests, and can be configured into more intimate environments for executive meetings, VIP receptions, and private celebrations.

THE UPPER MEZZANINE

Perched above the iconic Grand Banking Hall, the Upper Mezzanine offers an exclusive vantage point overlooking one of New York City's most celebrated landmark interiors. Bathed in natural light from soaring arched windows and framed by historic marble columns, this elegant gallery seamlessly blends Beaux-Arts grandeur with contemporary hospitality.

Thoughtfully positioned within the venue, the Upper Mezzanine serves as a graceful connection between the magnificent Grand Banking Hall below and the Historic Hamilton Office, creating a natural flow for guests to experience three of 48 Wall Street's most distinguished event spaces. Whether hosting an elegant cocktail reception, welcoming VIP guests, or transitioning between celebrations, the Upper Mezzanine enhances every moment with sophistication and architectural beauty.

More than an overlook, the Upper Mezzanine is the architectural bridge that unites the venue's most iconic spaces. Guests can effortlessly move from the grandeur of the Grand Banking Hall to the intimate elegance of the Historic Hamilton Office, creating a seamless experience for multi-room events, executive gatherings, weddings, galas, and luxury brand activations.

THE BANKING HALL

The Banking Hall at 48 Wall Street preserves the grandeur of the original 1920s financial institution that once occupied this landmark building. With soaring ceilings, stately columns, and restored period details, the Banking Hall provides a prestigious backdrop for large-scale corporate events, galas, and celebrations. This space captures the architectural significance of Wall Street's golden age while offering modern amenities and flexible configurations for today's events.

A PRIVATE EXECUTIVE SALON

Step into one of 48 Wall Street's most distinguished private spaces, The Alexander Hamilton Office. Named in honor of America's first Secretary of the Treasury and the visionary who laid the foundation for the nation's financial system, this refined executive salon embodies the elegance, prestige, and timeless character of Lower Manhattan's historic Financial District.

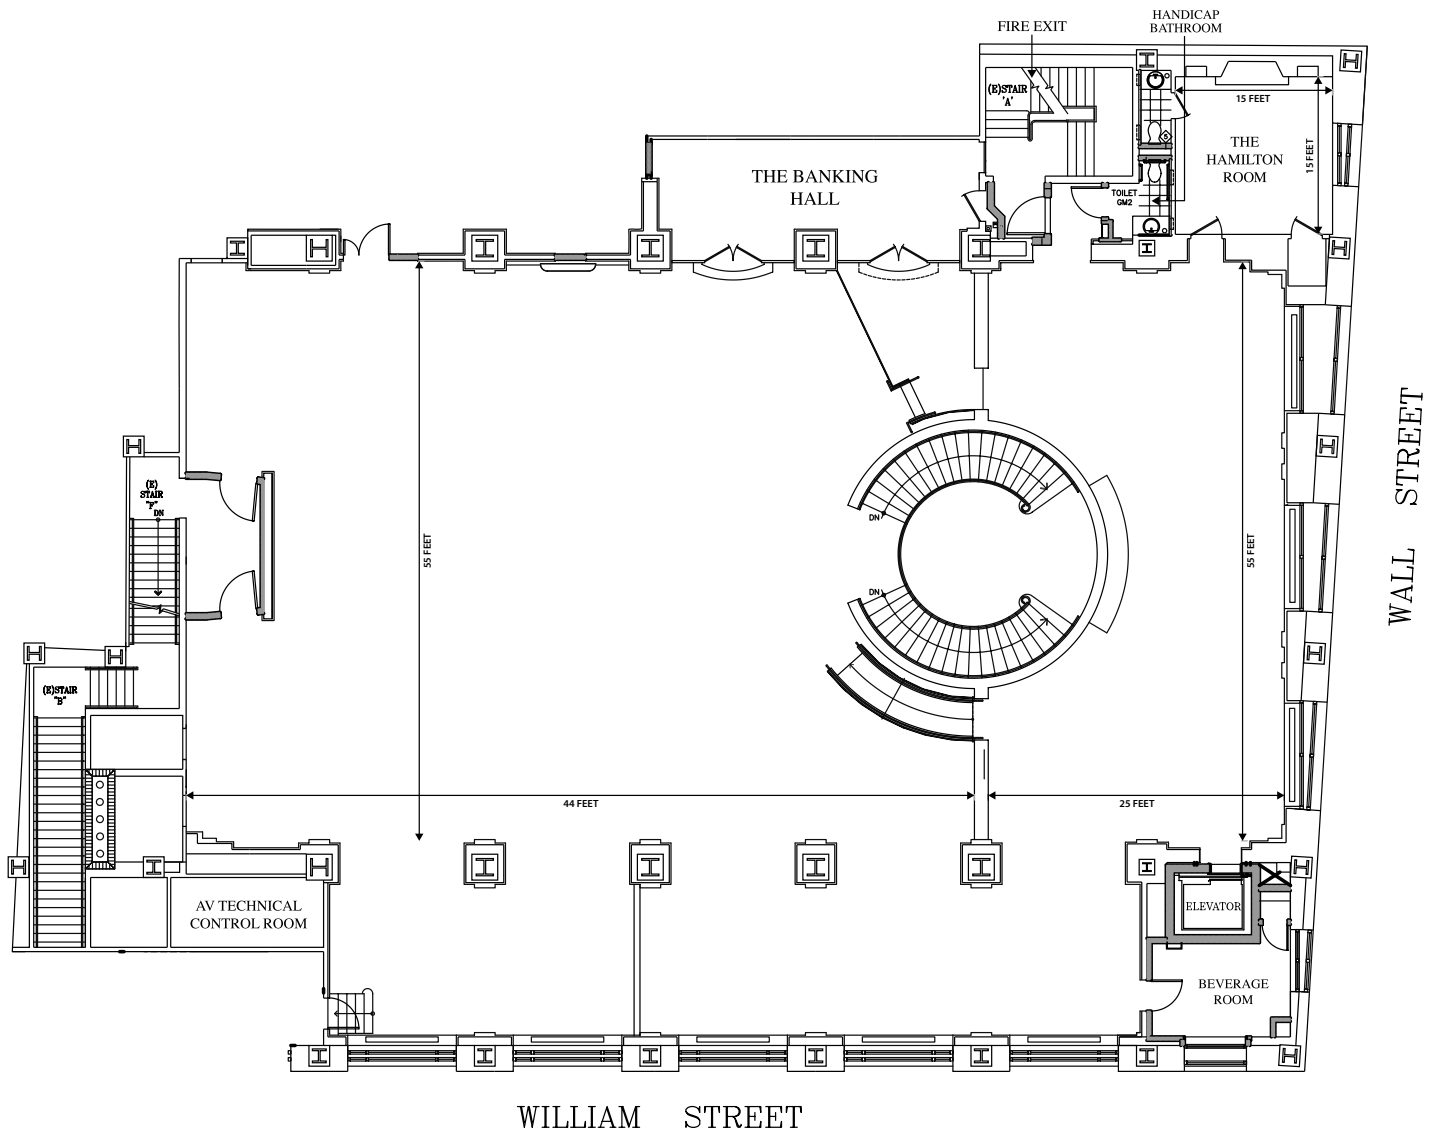

Rich in architectural detail, the room showcases soaring ceilings, handcrafted millwork, ornate gilded columns, period-inspired furnishings, a stately fireplace, and expansive windows that overlook the heart of Wall Street. Every element has been thoughtfully preserved to create an atmosphere that reflects the sophistication of New York's Gilded Age while providing a distinguished setting for today's executive gatherings.

Designed for privacy and meaningful conversation, The Alexander Hamilton Office is ideal for executive meetings, VIP receptions, board discussions, private dining, media interviews, speaker green rooms, and exclusive client engagements. Its intimate scale and historic ambiance offer an unparalleled backdrop where business, history, and hospitality converge.

THE CONCOURSE VAULT LEVEL

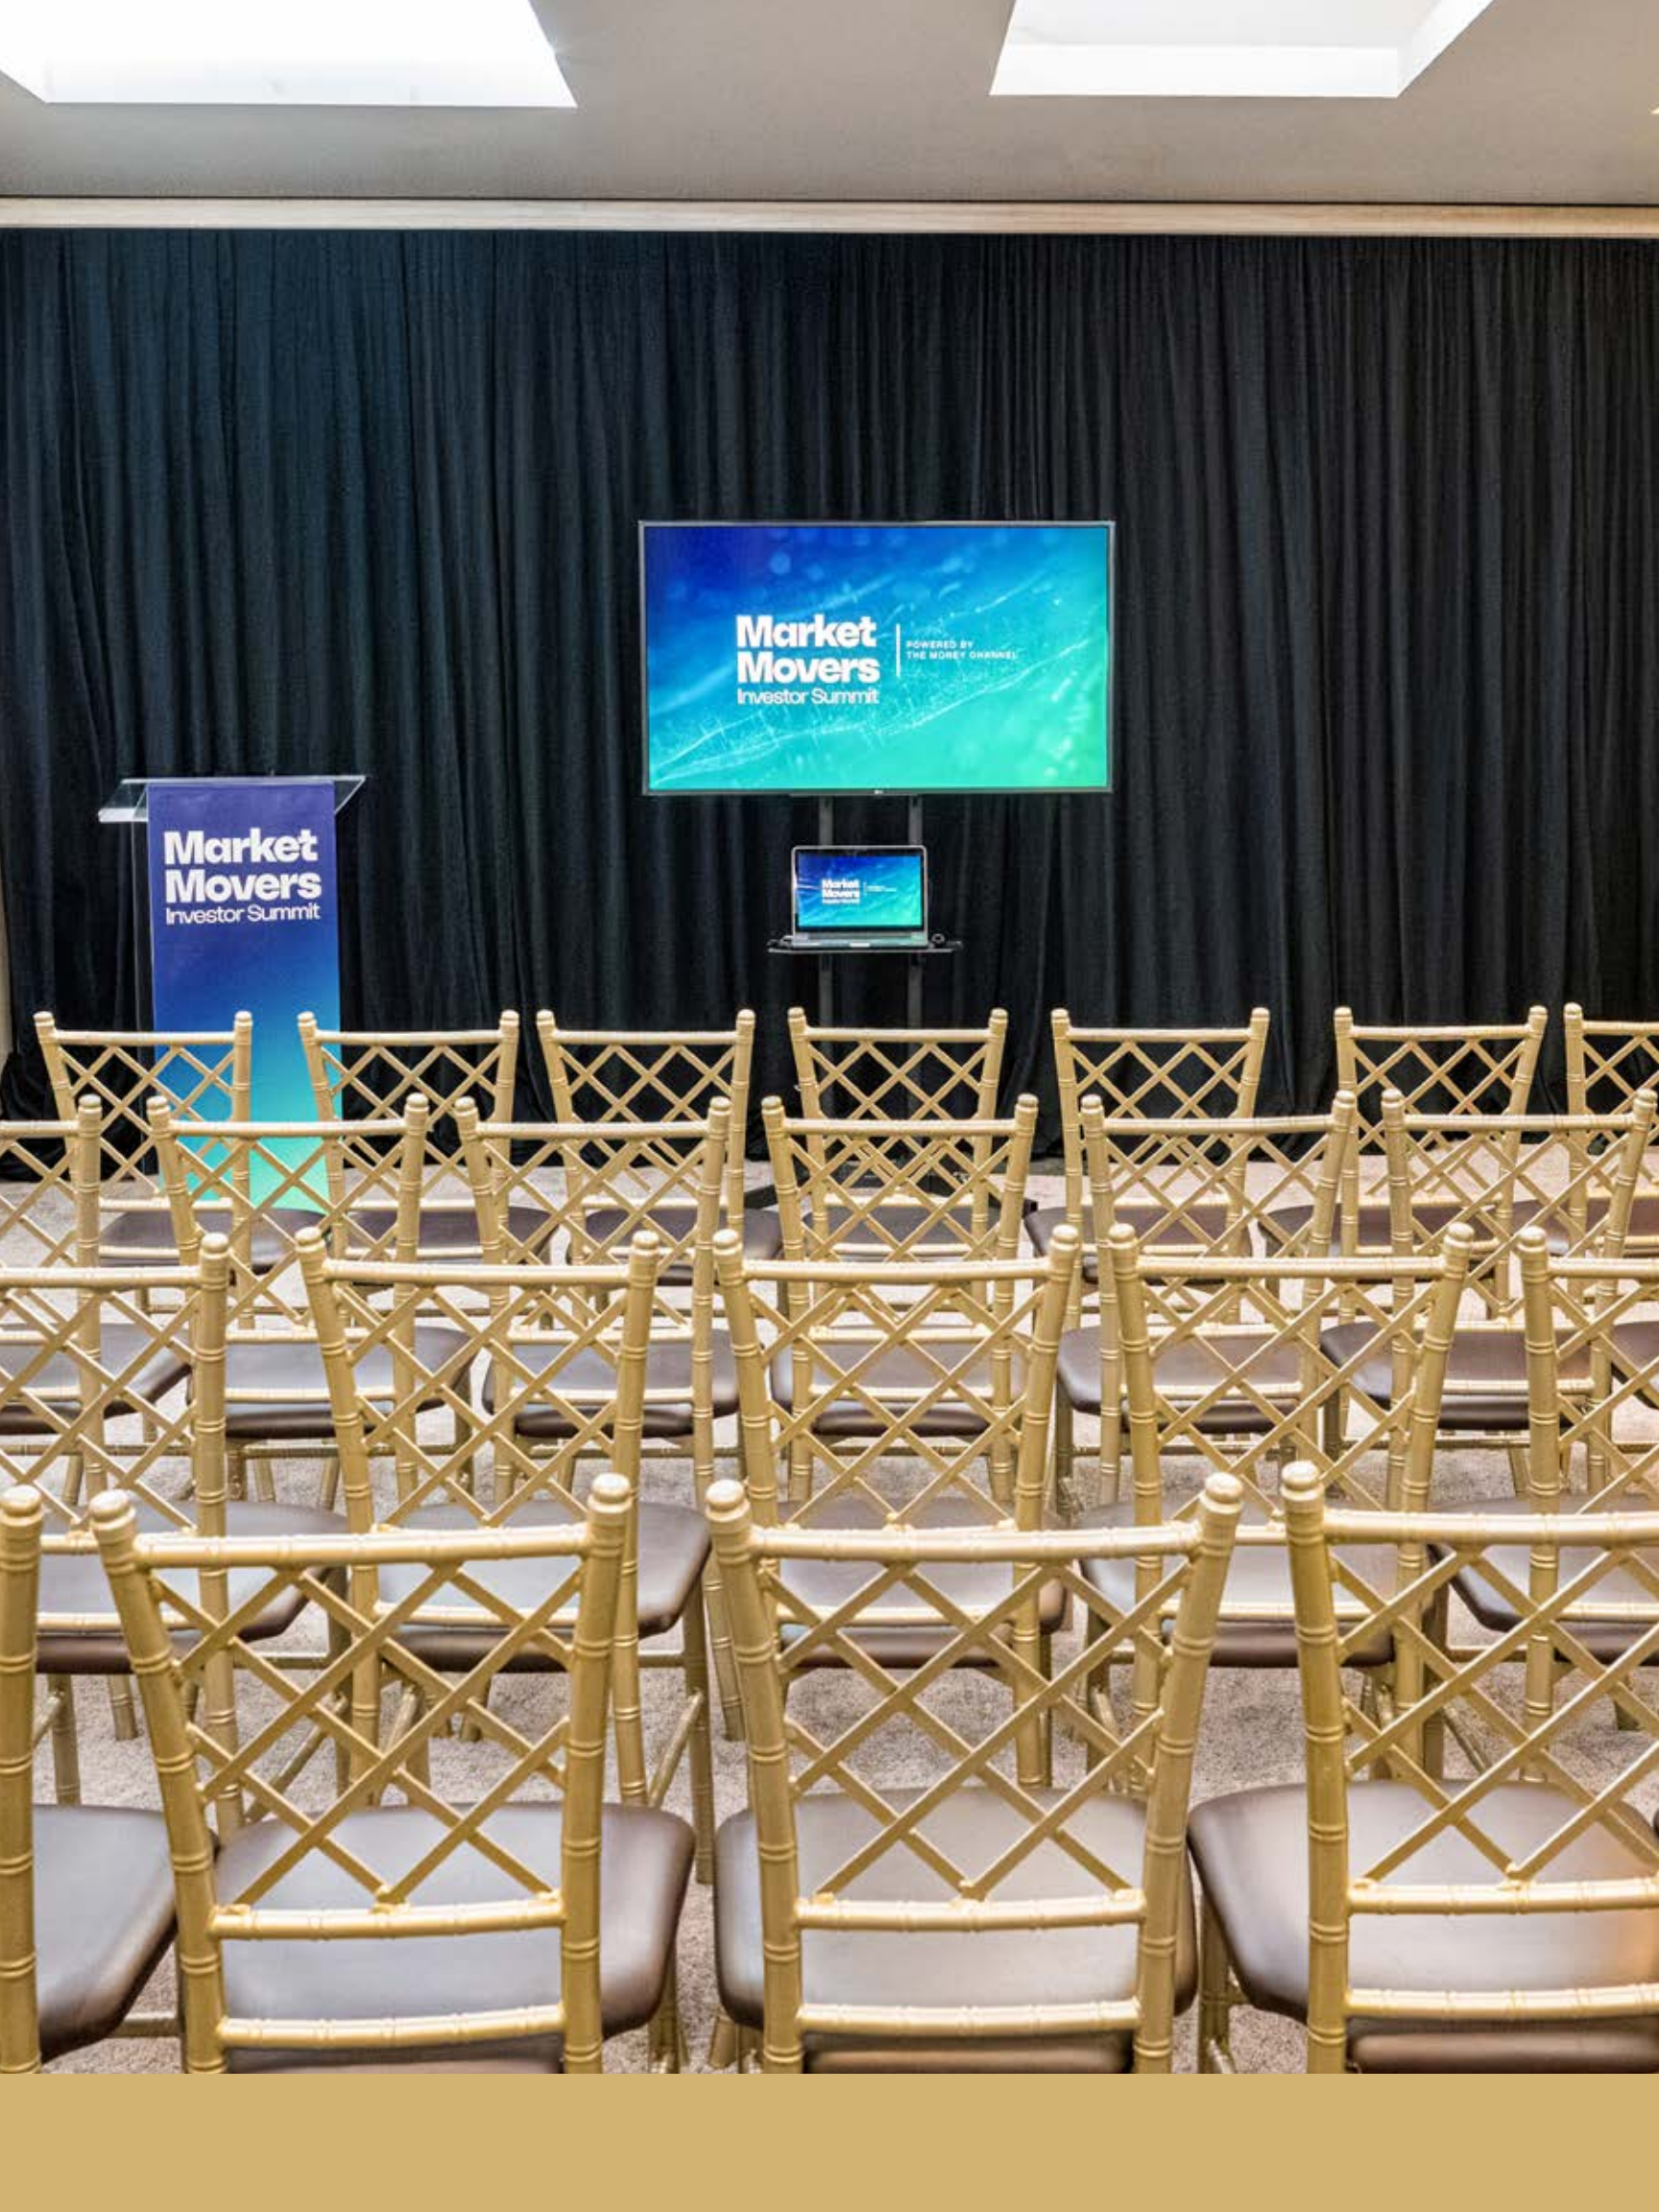

The Concourse Level sits directly below the Grand Mezzanine Banking Hall and gives 48 Wall Street a versatility that most single-floor venues cannot match. At 3,000 square feet with 14-foot ceilings, it accommodates up to 200 guests for a seated event or reception and divides into six separate breakout rooms for concurrent sessions and workshops. For full-day conferences, the Concourse handles parallel programming while the Grand Mezzanine serves the main stage. For weddings and galas, it works as a pre-function cocktail space or a private dining room. The two levels connect via the grand marble staircase, creating a natural and elegant flow for guests moving between them.
